

LATE CITY NEWS FOUND

By the Reporters on Their Round of the Town.

Among the Courts—Presbytery and Synod—Notes of News.

Death From Smallpox. Died:—On Dayton prairie, October 9, 1888, of smallpox, Oden, oldest son of George Morgareidge, aged about 18 years.

Notaries Public. Governor Pennoyer has issued the commission of notary public to-day to E. C. Walker, Milton, Umatilla county, and Robert H. Wilson, Corvallis.

Marriage Licenses. To-day licenses to wed were issued to: Charles Scheurer and Lizzie E. Fuller. H. R. Page and Laura D. Jory.

Note About the Smallpox. In reply to a letter from Lafayette regarding the raising of the quarantine, Dr. E. E. Goucher, of McMinnville, said if no new cases occurred within ten days they would regard McMinnville entirely safe, and suggested that they be not too hasty in removing the quarantine.

Notes of Navigation. The Three Sisters is now ready to run, says the Oregonian, and only awaits its new license from the custom house, made necessary by the change in her ownership from the Oregon Development Company to the Oregon Pacific Company. This will probably be ready the current week, and the boat will begin to ply as far up as Ray's Landing, and further up as soon as the river rises sufficiently. A rise of five inches was Thursday reported above Oregon City.

Articles of Incorporation. The following articles of incorporation have been filed with the secretary of state:

The Oregon state horticultural association, with principal office at Portland. The object of the association is to form a union of persons engaged in or interested in horticultural pursuits in Oregon and adjacent territory; for the discussion of matters of interest to its members and to issue publications and make exhibits of horticultural products, and in other ways advance the interests of horticulture. The officers of the association shall be a president, vice-president and treasurer, and at time of incorporation were filled by J. W. Caldwell, Henry Miller and S. A. Clark, respectively.

The India packing company, with principal office in Portland and a capital stock of $15,000. Ira B. Sturgess, T. G. Murray and H. M. Clark are the incorporators, and the object and business of this company shall be to manufacture, pack, purchase and sell fruits, vegetables, liquors, essences, etc.

Killed a Shark.

On Wednesday a feat was performed at Newport, says the News, which was very novel and surprising. Mrs. Fanny Seiforth and Miss Mary Westfall who with a number of their friends, all from Polk county, were spending a few days by the seaside, and while standing upon a log which projected out into the bay, discovered a large fish slowly swimming toward them. They procured a large rock, and when the fish came close along side hurled the missile at him, and strange to say hit him square on the back which projected a little above the surface of the water. This entirely paralyzed their victim, and rendered him an easy prey. They dragged him ashore, and the funny looking fish proved to be a veritable shark three and a half feet in length.

Some Salmon Salad. The fish commissioners will take charge of the Clackamas hatchery on November 1st. There are between 4,000,000 and 5,000,000 eggs at the hatchery now, and things are going along swimmingly, but the fish won't be ready to turn out for a month or six weeks yet. The strike among the salmon fishermen along the coast has delayed the arrangements entered into by the fish commissioners for staking Oregon waters with McLeod river salmon, so that nothing can be done this year. Mr. Thompson, one of the commissioners, is of the opinion that salmon when hatched stay in the rivers for from eighteen months to two years before going to the sea, and weigh from two to three pounds when they first taste salt water. He is furthermore of the opinion, backed by careful observation, that the salmon of each river always return to the same stream, and do not enter new waters.

The Wheat Outlook. The rise in wheat will of course stop the export demand, for the price of wheat is fixed in Liverpool by the price of wheat produced by the cheap labor of Southern Russia and India; and of course England will not take any American wheat at its present price. But the American farmer in his home market will be able to sell a good deal of our short wheat crop of this year at a higher price than he ever got in England. Our home market is worth more to us to-day than the small English market; but suppose we had free trade, then Russia and India wheat could be shipped here to break the present price of wheat and beat the farmers out of the profits of the present price that rule in our home market, and may rule for some time to come.—Oregonian.

ANNUAL SYNOD OF THE COLUMBIA.

Minutes of Their Meeting in the Capital City.

The afternoon service yesterday was devoted to an interlocking meeting on the subject of Sabbath observance. The fact developed that such observance was in a low state.

The narratives on state of religion were full of encouragement.

Committees were appointed to recommend a church paper and to revise permanent committees.

The report of the committee on temperance reported a healthy growth among the churches.

The evening exercises were conducted by the ladies' mission. Mrs. E. W. Allen of Portland conducted a model missionary society.

Officers were elected for the ensuing year and are as follows: President, Mrs. W. S. Ladd; corresponding secretary, Miss Lydia M. Warren; recording secretary, Mrs. W. B. Gilbert; treasurer, Mrs. H. J. Corbett.

When the Synod convened this morning as an item of interest Elder E. T. Albert, of Salem exhibited a Bible 300 years old. It is printed in the German language, and has been in the Albert family for four generations. For three years it was buried in an iron safe in the Allegheny mountains, during the war of the revolution.

The Presbytery of Southern Oregon was formed, consisting of Douglas, Jackson, Curry, Josephine, Klamath, Lake and Coos counties, with ministers and churches within these bounds.

It is ordered that this new Presbytery meet in Grant's Pass on Tuesday, April 9th, 1889, at 7:30 p. m., Rev. M. A. Williams to preach the sermon and preside until a moderator is chosen.

Appointments for to-morrow are as follows:

Presbyterian: 10:30, Rev. Calvin R. Shields; 7:30, Rev. T. M. Grome; 8:30 sacrament of the Lord's supper. M. E.: 10:30, Rev. W. A. Mackey. Baptist: 10:30, Rev. E. J. Thompson; 7:30, Rev. T. J. Weeks.

Congregational: 10:30, Rev. Thos. J. Watson.

Indian school: Rev. M. G. Mann.

At two o'clock this afternoon an interlocking meeting in the interest of the young was held; at 5 to 7:30 the society of Christian Endeavor of the Presbyterian church of Salem are to entertain the Synod at the pastor's residence.

TOLEDO TALK.

A ball given in the Toledo hall last Friday eve was not very well attended.

School opened September 24th; 35 pupils enrolled. They are making a fine start.

The Toledo Cornet Band meets about four times a week. The boys are doing very well.

Business, generally, is rushing here. People are wanting to rent houses all the time, but there are none for rent.

Fishermen are rejoicing over the rain that we have been having, as it tends to increase the run of salmon in the river.

Our druggist (McNeil) left us Thursday. He went to Spokane Falls, where he goes to care for his sick wife. May he soon be able to return with her is the wish of all.

Rev. T. H. Small will preach at the C. P. church on Sunday, Oct. 14th, at 11 o'clock a. m.

About one hundred Salemites went to Portland yesterday, to attend the rally and Mechanics' fair.

The Albany Democrat invariably quotes the JOURNAL, as "one of Salem's papers." Why not give us credit and be done with it?

The Pastors' Union will hold a meeting at the Christian church at 4 o'clock Monday afternoon for the purpose of re-organizing the Ministerial Union.

Bill Nye, James Whitecomb Riley and Gen'l Lew Wallace are promised attractions for the series of winter entertainments to be given under the auspices of the University.

There will be a social at the M. E. church on Wednesday evening, Oct. 17th. An entertaining programme is promised; ice cream, cake and coffee will be served; admission 25 cents, which includes refreshments.

An Oregon City crank is also advertising for a correspondent—object matrimony. Why don't he pitch in. Surely if he is worthy there are plenty of desirable ladies to be found.

Rev. E. J. Thompson, of Corvallis, but formerly of Salem, will preach to-morrow morning at the Baptist church; also some attending member of the Synod will occupy the pulpit in the evening.

The following notice is posted in an office in this city: We Have Time for Business or Social Calls, But Our Opinions on Religion, Politics and Base-ball Are so settled that We Do Not Wish to Discuss Them.

Band of Hope Monday at 4 o'clock in W. C. T. U. rooms. Subject to be considered "The Cider Question" to be followed by fifteen minutes drill in "marching songs." All are welcome. Flower Mission Band requested to be present by their Supt.

Nickerson was connected for a while with the Klamath Indian reservation. He was well known throughout the state.

Don't bite at that San Francisco picture enlargement concern—want you for a sample—confidential, you know—picture free if you will frame it. They are glorious frauds and a few days after receiving your order will inform you that the picture is ready and will be sent you for so much neatly framed. Let their bait gloriously alone.

Rev. Wm. B. Williams of Chehalis, Washington territory, will preach in the Congregational church Sunday evening, service commencing at 7 o'clock. Text John, 7th Ch. 17th verse. "If any man will do his will he shall know of the doctrine, whether it be of God or whether I speak of myself." A cordial welcome is extended to everyone.

UNIVERSITY NOTES.

Points of Personal Mention and Notes of News.

Miss Cox acted as organist at chapel Wednesday.

Dr. Port and Mayor McKinney, of Turner, witnessed chapel exercises Tuesday.

Misses Edith Smith, Gaddis, and Ora Bell, of Roseburg, visited school and were present at chapel Thursday.

Among those who entered school during the week, were N. P. Lecour and his sister, of Pendleton, Oregon.

Prof. W. E. Mitchell has arranged to meet his classes in art two days in the week, at his art room in the University hall.

Miss Mary Shafer, an ex-student, now teaching at Turner, manages to take one music lesson a week at the conservatory.

The scheme is being agitated for the University to make an excursion to Portland to the Mechanics' fair, next Saturday.

Rev. Wm. Travis, of Grand Forks, Dakota, visited the University Thursday, and was present at several recitations; also visited the museum. He spoke highly of the prospects of the school.

Miss Jennie Wood left the first of the week for her home at Milwaukee on account of illness, and Misses Susie and Ruth Harrington went to Portland yesterday, to visit their parents.

The University recently received a nice collection of specimens from Seattle, W. T., collected by Mrs. McIntosh. Besides several pieces of mineral ore and shells, there was a tarantula and his ingenious house with a hinged door.

The Philodolians debated the question, "Resolved that women should abandon corsets" at their meeting yesterday afternoon. In the evening the gentlemen discussed the question "Resolved that young men should not keep company with young ladies while attending school." Both questions were of lively debate. The former was decided in favor of the affirmative, the latter in the negative. A number of young ladies were present last evening, to hear the decision, which was so important to them.

The Oregon Land Company's ten acre lots are selling rapidly, 40 having been sold since the 8th of Sept. There is no probability that 10 acres of good land within four miles of Salem will ever again be offered for $50 per acre on easy terms. There are now five houses in process of construction on lots already sold and roads are being opened and bridges built so that the value of all of the lots is being rapidly enhanced. Any one wishing to buy ten acres of good land for much less than the price of a city lot will do well to look at this property at once as there is no doubt but that it will all be sold inside of thirty days. Call at the office of the Oregon Land company on Commercial street and you will be shown the property free of charge.

GREAT DISCOVERY!

Dr. H. SMITH

Now in possession of a new discovery in medicine, which is purely a local anesthetic, and acts almost instantaneously on the surrounding tissues of the teeth. It is in no way injurious or unpleasant to the taste. The manufacturers of it claim that its origin has never been known before, and by applying it to the sensitive or sore teeth, they can be cleaned and filled without pain. So all those that want all kinds of dental work done without pain, would better call on Dr. H. Smith. Teeth extracted for 50 cents.
